Civic Engagement 4.0—Dignity, Justice, Sustainability is pleased to announce a workshop for Myanmar teachers working in Migrant Learning Centers in Mae Sot, Thailand

“Training of Trainers for Engaged Social Service in a Borderless World.”

This workshop will take place in-person in Mae Sot on two weekends:
September 22-24 and September 29-October 1st, 2023

Purpose

- ❖ We seek to provide support for Myanmar teachers working in Mae Sot to rest and reflect on their social and leadership role as teachers in these challenging times.
- ❖ To offer a chance to learn about and exchange new and refreshing approaches to teaching and to organizing classroom activities.
- ❖ To assist teachers to find support for themselves as we learn to better support our students and each other.
- ❖ To guide and encourage participating teachers to cultivate not only their students' intellectual but also their social and emotional growth, as well as their critical thinking skills and their passion to serve the broader community.
- ❖ To enhance cross-national and cross-ethnic understanding and appreciation.
- ❖ To strengthen international and multisectoral exchanges and activities towards sustainability in Asia.
